First Stop

Dear Friends,

This is a letter full of firsts. MariaColacoDance has had so much happen this past year that I have not even had a chance to sit down and tell you about it. So I figured what the heck..I'll give the ole newsletter a shot. So here it is..our FIRST newsletter with lots of fun facts about your favorite modern dance company.

July 26-29, 2007: MariaColacoDance goes on our FIRST company residency! Can you believe it? 4 days of nothing but making dances. The residency is part of DanceNowNYC and it will take place in Hellerton, PA. We will be spending all our time immersed in the choreographic process and creating our Fall season.

June -August 2007: MariaColacoDance presents Summer Sweatin: A modern dance intensive. Our FIRST dance workshop that includes classes in technique, partnering, kinesiology, nutrition, choreography and lots more!

August 2007: MariaColacoDance FIRST benefit event. It will be a fun little swanky affair so stay tuned.

In December 2007, the company will present our FIRST ever Holiday Concert. Duke in December. Works to be created to Duke Ellington's Nutcracker.

Wait there's more!

MariaColacoDance is in the process of creating a full evening work for fall of 2008 about stories from and about India. Our piece, Sath Safed, about carpet weavers in the Kashmir region was included and funded in part by the NewSteps series at Mulberry Street Theater. We hope to present our completed work in Fall 08.

And last but certainly not least...

You know what they say, behind every Chick in Charge there is a ..Company Manager. I'm proud to introduce you all to our very FIRST Company Manager....Lenore Eggleston. Lenore is busy writing grants, booking gigs and keeping me in check.

Also in the works is a college tour. Can you believe it! We've come a long way. Read all about this “MUST SEE SHOW” NYTheatre.com at www.mariacolaco.com
